Found this place in one of the older Dubrovnik food guides and understood right after dinner why it is not featured in the latest food guides any longer... place feels like a canteen, not even close to cosy. The fried octopus as a starter was very nice, the veal from the iron bell (you have to pre-order) was super fatty... tastewise good but nothing to die for. Last but not least they made a mess on our bill. read more. The Mimoza from Dubrovnik serves menus that you can find all over Europe, Here, the meat is freshly grilled on an open flame. You have the option to, after the meal (or during it), also relax at the bar with an alcoholic or non-alcoholic drink, and you can look forward to the tasty typical seafood cuisine.
