As the hotel we staying in doesn't do breakfast, we was told to come here and boy we wasn't disappointed by it, so many choices for set breakfast and lunches to dinners too. Staff was very chatty and helpful too, excellent food and definitely go...back again. read more. In nice weather you can even be served in the outdoor area.
What Harvey White doesn't like about Breakfast At Tiffany's:
A basic cafe with a breakfast at tiffany's theme. Simple meals, better than a greasy spoon, but nothing very special. Our table was a bit sticky. Omlette was fine, salad rather small, coffee ok. But generally good value for money. read more. Breakfast At Tiffany's from Brighton and Hove is a comfortable café, where you can have a small snack or cake with a warm coffee or a hot chocolate, and you can look forward to the tasty typical seafood cuisine. Of course, we must not forget the comprehensive selection of coffee and tea specialties in this restaurant, Among the visitors, especially fine juices are highly sought after.
