was really surprised with the amount of vegan options and quality of the food. the bao bungalows were delicious and the tofu was perfectly cooked. also the huge poke dishes loved with purple rice and spicy chili sauce. the seating area is small but comfortable. Vegan options were not marked when we were there, but the workers were glued and knew what vegan was. can't wait to go back! read more. What User doesn't like about Oppa:

the rice was dreadfully boiled and made for a less than satisfactory eating experience. the vegan options were not clearly marked, although the staff could easily confirm what was and was not vegan.
