Nostra was the best culinary experience! The servers were amazing and so friendly! We had the 6 course meal that was about $100/person. This is worth the price as everything in Iceland is more on the expensive side. The food was delicious and very fresh. Our waiter gave us great suggestions to go to places and eat. He's a local who lived in the USA because he understood us. They even gave us a tour through their kitc... read more. The diner is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physical limitations, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and have something. What User doesn't like about Nostra: I expected something exceptional, but instead found the restaurant to be an attempt at fine dining that lost its edge in the approach. The food, while good, seemed lacking in much wow factor , the service attempted to approach what one might be accustomed to, but I found myself properly placing my silverware at every other course. For the price, it was simply too careless overall, and the food while very tasty, was b... read more. The Nostra in Reykjavik offers various delicious seafood courses, For you, the menus are normally prepared in a short time and fresh. There are also delicious menus available, typical for Europe, Furthermore, the drinks list in this eatery is impressive and offers a good and extensive variety of beers from the area and from worldwide, which are definitely worth a try.
