What EJGtrips likes about The Sandbrook: We popped in here this weekend as it's local to us, and it was great. It's always a pretty pleasant place to stop at if you're looking for a bite to eat somewhere a little more relaxed. The staff were working their socks off particularly a girl at the bar named Harriet who was really lovely and helpful, and I did remark that I didn't envy her at all in this heat. All in all a nice outing! read more. The restaurant offers free WLAN for its guests, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and eat and drink. The premises on site are accessible, and therefore no problem for customers with wheelchairs or physical disabilities.
