A relaxed small pub within a few minutes walk from the station. It was a quiet evening and was in the mood for a burger and fries. I went for the classic burger which came with onion rings and upgraded to some dirty fries. Service was polite and friendly, burger was decent and so were the onions rings. Fries were a little salty though and would not order them next time. Overall an enjoyable small pub with decent food... read more. The premises on site are accessible, and therefore no problem for customers with wheelchairs or physical disabilities. What 2WolfixTheWolfie W \(1 1 year ago on Google\) doesn't like about The Hand And Racquet:

Most of the food is really tasty, great quality and tastes fresh, however i do not recommend the "chicken and halloumi tray" as it's very very greasy and overpriced for what it is. Service isn't good, i've been waiting for my food for 45min (the restaurant is empty) and i've finished and i'm waiting another 45 min for an apple pie with a scoop of ice cream... meanwhile the dishes are sat on the table and waiters coming...
