What User likes about Ali G Takeaway: the first time here. I don't live in the kilrush, so I didn't have anyone asking about eating. the cable-jaufische and chips ordered. the food was really delicious and fresh and the guy on the theke was friendly. that was a surprise for me, as the place itself looked pretty beaten. so happy to say it was a better experience than what the picture.

They also offer many different types of food, but as tourist from the u... read more. The restaurant and its premises are wheelchair accessible and thus reachable with a wheelchair or physical disabilities. What User doesn't like about Ali G Takeaway:

Not sure what the traditional chicken and chips menu is like, but the Indian food is poor very liquidy and little use of spices. However there sister takeaway/restaurant in Kilkee has great Indian food if in kilrush worth the drive. read more.
