What User likes about The Galley: today visited here . had jacket kartoffel filling and salat, absolutely beautiful and fresh .salad beautiful and crisp .very reasonable price . the girls very friendly could not do enough for them.well did xx read more. The premises in the restaurant are wheelchair accessible and can also be used with a wheelchair or physical limitations. What User doesn't like about The Galley:

£3.50 for a bun that resembled a boulder, one slice of ham and a small spoonful of cheap tasting cheese savoury. But I guess it's justified by the use of lurpack. This place used to be so good, always fresh and local, but the ingredients now taste cheap. Spend your money on a meal deal instead read more. A visit to The Galley is particularly valuable due to the extensive selection of coffee and tea specialties, Besides the tasty sandwiches, healthy salads and other snacks also make a good snack.
