It wasn't very busy at all but we had to wait for ages for a very unfriendly man taking orders. We then had the worst coffee we have ever had (while completely overpriced and we had to wait for ages until it was made/ready because no one offered us to bring it to our table). We were then served inedible granola tasting so off that we ended up not daring to eat it and throwing it away. We will certainly never return a... read more.
