I come here regularly alone and with my friend and friends and this place never leaves me down. It is always a friendly reception and a great service. The menu has a large selection of all the usual Japanese favorites and everything is fresh.... We had sushi, ramen, veg curry and duckskeer and all were delicious. The meal (with a beer) was among them can not beat this beautiful little place read more. The place also offers the possibility to sit outside and eat in nice weather. What User doesn't like about Yama Yama:

I went to this Japanese restaurant on my last visit to London. The yakitori were great, very tender meat and the quail eggs melt in the mouth. The ramen noodles were very good, very well seasoned and tasty. I will repeat the experience. read more. With a lot of fresh vegetables, fish and meat, the Yama Yama from City of London, Westminster prepares easy-to-digest, tasty Japanese meals, tasty particularly are the Sashimi and delicacies like Inside-Out that this restaurant is known for.
