At this Turkish restaurant, diners experience a mixed bag. While some laud the efficient service during busy evenings and the generous portions, others express frustration over rude staff and mediocre food. The Chef's Special platter, featuring a variety of meats, garners praise for flavor, particularly the lamb ribs, while the noise and occasional long waits deter some families. One standout feature is the reasonable pricing, appealing to those looking for hearty meals. However, customer service experiences can vary significantly, leading to recommendations for improvement in this essential area. Overall, it's a place with potential, yet it leaves room for growth.
