What Nick Lovell doesn't like about The Horseshoe Pub:

Sadly this once proper pub has now become a cross between a sports bar and tribute band venue. There is now a screen in every part of the pub which seem to be turned on all of the time with the sound down, which you can't avoid having to look at unless you go outside. The beer selection is still good so I am looking forward to being able to visit again without having to look at a screen. Service: 3 read more. At The Horseshoe Pub in South Gloucestershire, there's a diverse brunch for breakfast where you can eat as much as you want treat yourself, Lovers of the English cuisine are impressed by the extensive variety of traditional dishes and enjoy the taste of England. Viewing various sports games and matches is equally one of the main attractions when visiting this sports bar, Furthermore, the drinks menu in this restaurant is impressive and offers a good and extensive assortment of beers from the area and from worldwide, which are definitely worth a try.
