After visiting Malham Cove and doing the hike round the area we stopped for a well needed lunch at the cafe, although very busy we sat on the benches round the back outside. The server was very helpful when asked about Gluten Free options and we all had various sandwiches with pots of tea or hot chocolate, finishing with some cake. Definitely in the perfect place for the many people visiting the area and a very good... read more.

When the weather conditions is nice you can also eat outside, And into the accessible spaces also come clientele with wheelchairs or physiological disabilities. WiFi is available without additional charges. A journey through Great Britain without getting on a plane is easily possible when it comes to culinary delights: The Old Barn in Craven traditionally shines for example with Fish and Chips, mashed potatoes or roast with Yorkshire Pudding and as dessert a sweet Trifle, Furthermore, the visitors of the establishment enjoy the comprehensive variety of the differing coffee and tea specialities that the establishment has available. If you have little appetite, you can treat yourself to one of the tasty sandwiches, a small salad or another snack, here they serve a appetizing brunch in the morning.
