I'm on the plate, as at many places have said, that I would have a dozen if she gave phds for scenery. I have eaten scene in the places from the Orkney Islands to Australia and written in more publications about it than I could possibly remember. So. you can take my word that the freshly baked, homemade scorpions (with butter and strawberry jam) are pretty likely the best I have cost in recent years. cafe no is a uri... read more. Arrived lunchtime August. One table of four persons were on the ground floor, and we were asked to go upstairs. We waited waited. A waitress even came up to clear another table...no offer of taking the order, thinking she'd be back up shortly...No way! Eventually had to go down and ask to be served. As per previous Mrs customer, no apology, nor was everything all right read more.
