I love the setting and was excited to dine with a friend new to the area. I follow the different menus on social media and know that the chef uses in season produce. Service was slow and clunky, food choices limited for veggie options. Food is divine. Portions help you maintain a great waistline read more. We have been in this pub in the past and loved the food. This time it has been very disappointing. We know is not cheap but we don't mind to pay for good food. Squid risotto tasteless...had to put salt 3 times and they put about 4 tiny pieces of squid. Hake also needed salt, Mac cheese dry. What happened there? What a shame! It used to be really good food. Also, I ordered red wine to have venison offered as special a... read more.
