We managed to find an indoor table for 2, by the counter, after an invigorating walk at Cuber Gap. It was quite full for lunch and some had even gone outside in the marquee. The homemade soup was good and the rustic baguettes were filling and tasty. Good service, thanks read more. You can use the WLAN of the place free of charge, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and eat and drink. The premises on site are accessible, and therefore no problem for visitors with wheelchairs or physical disabilities. What Geoff F doesn't like about The Eating House:

Not only was the dish was extremely overpriced at £11 for the portion size but the quality was extremely poor!The menu details were clearly composed by a fiction writer.What was described as a dish in a rich tomato sauce with vegetables and sundried tomatoes actually contained 2 very thin slices of onions and tomatoes that would never pass for sundried in terms of texture and taste.They were soggy and tasteless.Suffi...
