What Orkho likes about Cafe W At Waterstones Argyle Street: This review actually is about Waterstones sister cafe at Sauchiehall Street but I could not find an entry for it on Trip Advisor. It's a great idea to have a cafe incorporated into Waterstones larger stores. Plenty snack options including bacon rolls on offer and all the usual hot drink options. Service was quick and friendly and the lady gave us helpful advice on how to get to Kelvingrove Museum. Recommended read more. The restaurant and its premises are wheelchair accessible and thus usable with a wheelchair or physical disabilities, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and have something. WLAN is available for free. What Michelle B doesn't like about Cafe W At Waterstones Argyle Street:

Café W is located on the first floor of the Waterstones on Argyle Street, in a corner of the actual bookstore. The furniture is somewhat old school and combined with all the books, this café creates a nice library like atmosphere. There's free WiFi, and students get free top ups on all coffees (with a Waterstone's student card it takes 2 sec. to create and costs nothing). However, they do not make skinny coffees, whi...
