Good place to spend a weekend visiting. Free and plentiful parking as well as a lot of places to eat. I do think though that it would be a lot better if there were more places to sit down and rest, particularly places where there are free tables to sit and eat at as there used to be some a good 15-20 years back when Metroland was still there. Some other parts of the mall have a lot of vacant shops which does give a b... read more. The restaurant offers free WiFi for its customers, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and be served.

The rooms on site are accessible, and therefore no problem for clientele with wheelchairs or physiological disabilities. What User doesn't like about Barburrito Metrocentre:

Visited Bar burrito during a shopping trip, the food was great, however, when we first walked into the restaurant the staff were sitting on the benches where the food was sitting, some on their phones and talking. Tables were untidy with leftover cups, plates and napkins. Server was quite abrupt and made to feel like we were an inconvenience to be there, he didn't check my student ID and seemed like he couldn't be bo... read more. Look forward to the diverse, delicious Mexican cuisine, traditionally prepared with corn, beans and chilies (hot peppers), The menus are usually prepared in the shortest time and fresh for you. Naturally, they also provide you with tasty pizza, baked straight from the oven in original style, there are also tasty vegetarian menus in the menu.
