What User likes about The Winged Ox:

First time visit for a surprise date night organised by my partner..we arrive early and thought we'd have a drink first, it was busy as there was a gig on in St lukes but the guy on reception showed us to the bar and said he'd come and get us if he could seat us any earlier. We sat and had a couple of drinks the barman was very friendly and informative about the history of the building etc, the decor is comfortable m... read more. The restaurant offers free WiFi for its guests, And into the accessible rooms also come clientele with wheelchairs or physiological disabilities. If the weather conditions are right, you can also eat outside. What User doesn't like about The Winged Ox:

Reserved a table(6/9/23) for 4 in the restaurant as we are attending a gig next door and received confirmationTwo weeks later started getting emails demanding £5 deposit per person to confirm booking. No deposits were asked for at time of online booking. Obviously an error on the restaurants behalf and no way was I paying retrospective deposits on a confirmed booking. Series of emails demanding deposits followed with... read more. If you're hungry some hot South American gastronomy, you're in the right place: tasty dishes, made with fish, sea creatures, and meat, but also corn, beans, and potatoes are on the menu, Lovers of the British cuisine are impressed by the comprehensive variety of traditional dishes and enjoy the taste of England. After the meal (or during it), you have the opportunity to also relax at the bar with a alcoholic or non-alcoholic drink, for breakfast they serve a tasty breakfast here.
