a couple of weeks entered for lunch and, must admit, I was absolutely blown away from the place and the incredible hospitality. my older grandfather, who suffers with dementia, had forgotten his hearing aid, but the woman who served us was so friendly and patient with him. Moreover, eating was absolutely delicious! they even took care of my 15-month old! can't wait to visit again! read more. The diner and its rooms are wheelchair accessible and thus usable with a wheelchair or physical disabilities, and there is free WLAN. If the weather conditions are right, you can also have something to eat outside. What User doesn't like about The Beach Cafe

At The Waves:

Nice location, been here a few times with the grandchildren. The food is below average and overpriced for what is served. The chips are cheap frozen chips, the burger I had was the worst burger I have eaten, dry tasteless and of a cheap quality.. The coffee is tasteless boiled Brown water. Reminded me of 1960 cheap seaside food. Charged £24.00 for a burger and chips, dry fishcake and 2 tasteless coffees. I will only... read more.
