We were just doing the touristy thing in rural Northumberland and came upon this little roadside area with a monument , cafes and good parking, so stopped for a cuppa. We had toasted crumpets, fruit scones with the same and cherry and almond scones all served with fruity jam and butter All were lovely. The tea was a big teapot for two of us, and by the time he'd poured his weak bit out and I let the pot stand, it was... read more.
