I had lunch last night. I love the ambiente and the roaring fire. beautiful and comfortable and relaxing. had 6 tapas dishes between us. beautifully cooked and presented. houloumi, meatballs, humble, mozzarella with tomato and basilikum. very good filling would definitely recommend not wait to go back. What Curious56059974197 doesn't like about The Cellar:

I took 3 adult grandchildren there on December 12th and was really disappointed. It was very busy because there was live music so service was incredibly slow. I certainly wouldn't have booked had I known, obviously that music appeals to many but we just found it intrusive making conversation difficult. I have been to Mary's many times but not sure about returning, certainly not on Tuesday evenings. read more. The The Cellar from North Somerset serves dishes that you can find all over Europe, Particularly fans of the British cuisine are excited about the extensive selection of traditional meals and love the typical English cuisine. Following various sports events and competitions is equally one of the highlights of visiting this sports bar, Additionally, easy digestible Mediterranean courses are available.
