This snack bar is in a beautiful location on Devils Bridge in Kirkby Lonsdale. For years, bikers have used this as a meeting place for a chat and bite to eat. We passed it on Sunday and it was packed out to the rafters. The next day we easily got a parking place and sampled a bacon and a sausage buttie very nice too. A tad expensive but we didn't mind just for the experience of eating from the famous shack. read more. The rooms in the restaurant are wheelchair accessible and can also be used with a wheelchair or physiological limitations. What johnnyrock2014 doesn't like about Devil's Bridge Snacks:

Sampled a sausage/egg bap/batch ... AGHHHH !... the supposed sausage was disgusting, tasteless and like cardboard. The guy serving looked like he'd lost a tenner and found 10p, miserable, smileless that made us feel unwelcome. We only went because I had read the reviews of it online. Would not go back there if it was free. read more. A visit to Devil's Bridge Snacks becomes even more rewarding due to the large selection of coffee and tea specialties, You can also unwind at the bar with a cool beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks. The burgers of this place are among the highlights and are usually served with filling sides such as chips, salads or wedges, Furthermore, the drinks list in this eatery is impressive and offers a good and extensive selection of beers from the area and from worldwide, which are definitely worth a try.
