A very nice, bright, vibrant place. Bigger than I expected also. Staff were super friendly and helpful. A wee tad pricy for what was provided I felt. I had the Farmers Lunch. It'd be a rather skinny mouse farmer I'd expect, as I'd big chunks of cheese, but a very disappointing amount of ham. But we will be back. read more. In beautiful weather you can even be served in the outdoor area, and into the accessible rooms also come guests with wheelchairs or physiological disabilities. A journey through Great Britain without getting on a plane is easily possible when it comes to culinary delights: Ardardan Tearoom in Argyll Bute traditionally shines for example with Fish and Chips, mashed potatoes or roast with Yorkshire Pudding and as dessert a fine Trifle. Furthermore, the visitors of the establishment enjoy the large variety of the differing coffee and tea specialities that the restaurant has available.

In case you want to have breakfast, a hearty brunch is offered to you, and you can look forward to the scrumptious traditional seafood cuisine.
