Went for lunch with friends. Cafe was busy, but we got a table. Staff were very friendly (and seemed to know most of the people in there who were obviously returning locals always a good sign! . Service was friendly and fast. Food was very good we had scrambled egg and mushrooms on toast, Early Grey tea etc... Excellent! read more. The restaurant also offers the possibility to sit outside and have something in pleasant weather. What User doesn't like about Tea On The Square:

Called in for lunch with my family and to be honest the prices are expensive for the food received. £10.95 for 2 small sausages a few chips one egg and one round of bread and butter. Not what you expect to pay in a small cafe with a limited menu as this was. I don't mind paying for good food but i would label this as staff canteen food at London restaurant prices. Would not recommend. read more.
