If in a dream I had fallen into a vat of katsu curry I would wake to a happy day. I spent the second half of every visit here spinning my bowl around and around seeking out the best last smears of curry. This is a lovely place they will accommodate vegans well and are a lovely couple with a friendly team of waiting staff. If you ever had that other dream that your pillow turned into a tofu pillow case filled with boi... read more. In nice weather you can even eat in the outdoor area. What Michael Reid doesn't like about Umi Japanese Bar Restaurant: Was able to get a vegan tofu curry upon request, and everything we ordered was so tasty. However, having gone back for a third time and physically sitting in, I found the environment very anxious and unnerving. My requested tofu vegan curry had bits in that didn't belong in the curry, even though it seemed to only be a piece of batter or so I really wasn't happy as having obviously had crossamination with my food, g...
