We ate outside. There are wonderful 'islands' to allow people to eat outdoors even if it's raining, and so self-distance very effectively. The islands are basically wooden picnic tables/benches, with an open-sided wooden hut built around each one. Great solution. The meal was very nice. Tasty chowder with good brown bread. The day's special was monkfish, either in batter or pan-fried, and both were delicious. As w... read more. The restaurant also offers the possibility to sit outside and be served in beautiful weather, and there is no-charge WLAN. The rooms on site are accessible, and therefore no problem for visitors with wheelchairs or physiological disabilities. What bureen doesn't like about Tigh Mheaic:

Having visited here recently I find other reviews suspect. The food service was awful. We asked for fish chips were offered scallops instead of haddock. The scallops were dried out from being reheated not fresh, served on dirty plates. Spuds, black pudding a rasher were on the plate with the scallops. Salad too was not fresh. Service was very slow. The surround was untidy, an unkept car park with crates lying about a... read more. During meals, a refreshing drink is essential. In this gastropub, you will find not only tasty dishes, but also a large and comprehensive assortment of good beers and other alcoholic drinks that compliment the food, the restaurant provides also menus from the European environment. Also, they provide you tasty seafood dishes, here they serve a comprehensive brunch for breakfast.
