Went for the carvery launch and found the food very disappointing. After picking from the carvery and getting to the end one of the servers took my plate of food away to flash it as they said. I brought the food back to my table and found it to be warm not hot even though they flashed it . I am assuming the term flash it means they put it in the microwave or something else to heat it up I have eaten here before and f... read more.
