Great cakes and hot drinks. The mint brownie I got was one of those if not the best I ever had. The price is slightly higher than the average, but the quality is in place. The atmosphere was beautiful. Service is also really good. Everything is served directly at the table. Waiting time was somewhat longer than expected, but it can be due to peak times as I visited. Overall worth a shot, maybe not something you would... read more. The restaurant also offers the possibility to sit outside and eat and drink in nice weather.
