Very good Italian restaurant, beautiful and delicious dishes. One of my favorites. Good beer too. Here you can get pizza and other Italian dishes. The hotel is very central, not so much in the rush area, but simply from there to the city centre, the nearby park and all shopping streets of Prague. Tram and subway are nearby. read more.

What User doesn't like about Mimosa:

This place had some good and some not so good. The salad we shared was good and my gnocchi was good, but my wife's risotto was runny. It was like they didn't drain the water out all the way. Also, this was the first Czech restaurant that didn't supply bread. A little overpriced for what you get. We probably won't return but a plus was they spoke good english. read more. At Mimosa in Prague, delicious pizza is baked fresh using a time-honored method, and you can look forward to the tasty traditional seafood cuisine. You have the option to, after the meal (or during it), still relax at the bar with an alcoholic or non-alcoholic drink.
