Was taken here by our son for Mother's Day. It was busy, with a few big tables, however the whole experience was fabulous. The staff were extremely efficient and the food was hot and really well cooked. Would highly recommend. read more. What User doesn't like about Pear Tree:

Mac and cheese 6 quid and was the size of the rim of a pint glass, poor value for money and staff are like robots no check up or asking how the meals were, very expensive for the poor quality food you don't mind the price if it's nice food but it's jsut bland average food, shame as i suggested it to my family and i got funny faces once this was the case. Really disappointing read more.
