I was in this pub a few times when I traveled through heathrow and I always come back. it is very easy to get to public transport from the airport. the prices are competitive and I always had a very good meal. it is. a strange cozy village like pub, despite close to this huge airport. the bartender named allie has a sense of humor and takes care of her customers well. I would give the review 5 stars, but much outside... read more. The Green Man:

we waited long before we eat. I was lukewarm, though otherwise okay. eating my friend was burned at the edges. gravy was in appearance, so I didn't have one. the restaurant was not busy, so I'm not sure why it took so long. we will not return.
