We were staying nearby and decided to have lunch at the Brasserie. My husband has been here in the past, before we met but for myself it was the first time. Wow what an experience. The starter and the mains which was a fish was absolutely exquisite. It was as it should be cooked, moist, soft very well seasoned with fresh vegetables and roast potatoes. We thoroughly enjoyed it and did not mind the price as it was well... read more.

What User doesn't like about The Brasserie, Mallory Court:

The Brasserie is pleasant and as it was a sunny day it was an ideal location. We had drinks in the garden, I ordered a Bloody Mary and it came without vodka. The service was quite low. Ordered from a fairly good menu. I had squid with ginger which was under seasoned and there wasn't any ginger flavour to it. I then had lamb which was edible. When we sat down my father in law who is quite deaf could hear us all well b... read more. The extensive selection of coffee and tea specialties makes a visit to The Brasserie, Mallory Court even more worthwhile, At the bar, you can unwind with a freshly tapped beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks.
