What User likes about The Cross Inn:

first time visitors were impressed by the choice of the ales, the bar had so much to offer that I needed extra time to meet my selection! there is a tempting choice of cobs, cakes and scotch eggs with the usual packages of pub...Snacks, but that's not a restaurant. smokers are good with a covered area outside, dogs are also welcome here. it was early when we dived for drinks and it was well supported by locals. I lov... read more. The premises in the restaurant are wheelchair accessible and can also be used with a wheelchair or physiological limitations, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and eat. What User doesn't like about The Cross Inn:

Used this pub many years ago so glad its had an update and is still a going concern. How ever having visited on a Thursday evening we found it to be very busy which is great ,but one thing that put us off was the...amount of people stood blocking the bar thus stopping people getting a drink. This is a particular dislike of ours and to be honest most of them were quite ignorant and thought they owned the place. Bit of... read more. If eating and drinking is too unexciting for you, go to this sports bar for a variety of large and small snacks and dishes and catch live football, tennis or Formula 1 games, It's possible to chill out at the bar with a freshly tapped beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks. Without doubt, the right drink enhances every meal; with this thought in mind, this gastropub offers a large diversity of scrumptious and local alcoholic beverages like beer or wine, Here, the meat is freshly grilled on an open flame.
