What OliveYouTwo likes about Maison Chaplais: Cute little deli shop with good selection although some of the branded goods are highly priced compared to other places. Anyway, the lunch sandwiches were made to order and very good quality although they did take an age to arrive. Good selection of sandwiches. read more. As a visitor, you can use the WiFi of the establishment at no extra cost, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and eat. The premises on site are accessible, and therefore no problem for guests with wheelchairs or physical limitations. What LElizabeth76 doesn't like about Maison Chaplais:

I've been here a couple of of times and the pastries and cakes are really good (especially the Bakewell tarts). My biggest issue is it is eye-wateringly expensive. £7 for a few biscuits or a baguette is twice if what you'd pay even in London . I appreciate it's imported and costs have risen but they could offer a few more "budget range" items.

It's also quite dusty with a crowded feel between shelves. The takeaway cof... read more. If you want to eat something tasty quickly, Maison Chaplais from Cheltenham offers scrumptious sandwiches, small salads and other snacks, as well as hot and cold drinks, here they serve a appetizing brunch in the morning. You have the option to, after the meal (or during it), still relax at the bar with an alcoholic or non-alcoholic drink, Furthermore, you save time with the variety of already prepared delicacies, without having to compromise on pleasure.
