I really enjoyed my eating. my only complaining is that it was all a bit too fat and I think the vegan options could have been a bit more diverse and interesting. the samosas were amazing. the personal was really hospitable. I would definitely go if they were in the opposite and for a decent curry hankernel. read more. The diner and its rooms are wheelchair accessible and thus usable with a wheelchair or physiological disabilities, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and have something. What User doesn't like about Planet India: I have eaten both in their hove and Brighton restaurants, and also when they were opened in preston street, a cure I had in her Hove Square was really unpleasant, the worst cure I ever had. do not get the hype, and I have tried but not for me, his poor, really poor. updated by the previous review on 2021-10-16 read more. At Planet India in Brighton and Hove you can taste delicious vegetarian menus, that are free from any animal meat or fish, With typical Indian spices, dishes are tasty and freshly prepared. The meals are prepared authentically Asian, Furthermore, the guests love the inventive combination of different menus with new and partially experimental products - a good example of successful Asian Fusion.
