What Lyndsey1809 likes about Colwick Hall:

We had 10 guests staying in the hotel the night before our wedding and we chose to eat in the brassiere. As we were a large group we had a limited menu and I would have liked to have seen slightly more or better choices on the menu. However the food and service was excellent. Food was very tasty and was piping hot and the whole table was served their food in a timely manner read more. You can use the WLAN of the restaurant free of charge, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and have something. The rooms on site are accessible, and therefore no problem for visitors with wheelchairs or physical disabilities. What Q9504IKallisonh

doesn't like about Colwick Hall:

Having previously had an afternoon tea here pre-lockdown and it being lovely I felt that this visit was a complete disappointment, slow service and a very limited amount of tiny, previously frozen cakes and hardly any garnish on the sandwiches. On top of that you have to pay to park your car. A very disappointing afternoon tea experience for a special anniversary, would definitely not recommend and will never return! read more. For those who want to have a drink after work and sit with friends or alone, Colwick Hall from Nottingham is a good bar, In the morning they serve a extensive breakfast here. Even if you're only a bit hungry, you can still treat yourself to one of the delicious sandwiches, a small salad or another snack, Lovers of the British cuisine are impressed by the comprehensive variety of traditional meals and enjoy the taste of England.
