recommend this restaurant! their fish and chips are large and the portions are very generous. we had a cod and a squid from which both came with many chips that we could not finish. it is not expensive and the personal is friendly. definitiw will come back next time in brighton. read more. The restaurant also offers the possibility to sit outside and be served in nice weather, And into the accessible spaces also come visitors with wheelchairs or physical limitations. What Edward S doesn't like about Bankers:

This chip shop used to be great, but after our last experience we won't be back. Service was slow 25mins for a takeaway, the staff rude at one point even shouting at an elderly couple, finally the chips were well below average once we finally got them. Why would you go here when there are so many other chippies to choose from? read more. You can at Bankers from Brighton taste delicious vegetarian courses, in which no animal meat or fish was brought into play, and you can look forward to the fine traditional seafood cuisine. Most courses are prepared quickly for you and served, Particularly fans of the British cuisine are excited about the extensive variety of traditional menus and love the typical English cuisine.
