What User likes about The Dering Arms: the second time we visited the dering arms in just one month. the menu is varied, but the main focus is fish that is well baked and brilliantly cooked. the wine list is varied and full of some remarkable bottles, so well worth checking...the time! service was always great; friendly and efficient. Make sure they leave time and rooms for a glass of their excellent armagnac. we're coming back. read more. When the weather is nice you can also eat outside, and there is free WLAN. The rooms on site are accessible, and therefore no problem for clientele with wheelchairs or physiological disabilities. What User doesn't like about The Dering Arms: I, my friend and his family came at 8.30 a.m. for a few drinks (not our first choice) and we were rude by the renter who stood at the bar that served 4 other people. he stood and looked at us and said: "in the service no longer, in the alone" obviously a lie as she was not busy at all and served the people before us. he obviously didn't like the sight of us when he took a look and didn't hesitate to throw us out. thr...
