On a cold, blustery Saturday we happened upon The Ark. Warm welcome and the smell of home baking filled the nostrils. We settled for Leek and Potato soup with Bannocks followed by fruit scones and jam washed down with lashings of Scottish tea! A very warm welcome on a very cold day! read more. The diner is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physical disabilities, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and be served. What User doesn't like about The Ark:

Arrived here on a beautiful sunny and warm Wednesday afternoon but found the tearoom closed (as it appears to be most days). Confusing and conflicting notices about when it is open. So takeaway only, the service was unwelcoming, poor cake offerings, and expensive. This place should be a goldmine but, as it is, it won't be. Go to the Anchor pub, just along the road, where the food and service are very good! read more. A journey through Great Britain without getting on a plane is absolutely possible when it comes to culinary delights: The Ark in Dumfries Galloway traditionally shines for instance with Fish and Chips, mashed potatoes or roast with Yorkshire Pudding and for dessert a fine Trifle, for breakfast they serve a varied breakfast here. Of course, we must not forget the comprehensive diversity of coffee and tea specialties in this locale.
