What User likes about Tequila's: not bad. no bad Mexican food. it is a little on the small side, especially after the new renovation, but its well presented as eating. Good choice of delicious Mexican classics, all with a bit of cook flare and a reasonable price. they need to work on a better margahrita and a better choice of Mexican beer would be good. no worse place to come before a night with a group. What User doesn't like about Tequila's:

where did everything go wrong?. used to a great place for a beautiful authentic Mexican night outside, then something terrible happened, it morphed in cafe zoot, same decor same sauces and dressings, cheaper ingredients, less chic and more supposed flair. less joy therefore arises. they save their disappointment and go on chimichanga on the brayford, beautiful atmosphere and great authentic food, no plastic gimmicky...
