I've been to Wagamama in Newcastle a couple of times and have thoroughly enjoyed the meal each time. It is based in Old Eldon Square next to Strada and a large Starbucks. It has all recently been renovated. The food was lovely I can't remember the name of the dish I had but it was freshly prepared and had so many ingredients I couldn't afford to cook it at home! They serve freshly pressed juices which are delicious.... read more. The premises in the restaurant are wheelchair accessible and can also be used with a wheelchair or physical limitations. What Callum Cook doesn't like about Wagamama:

Absolutely loved our starter dishes of the bang bang cauliflower with the sublime firecracker sauce and the delicious spicy teriyaki vegan chicken hirata steamed buns. I could eat those starters on repeat they are so good and so flavoursome. We also ordered the teriyaki vegan chicken ramen but found it to be a little bland, although the vegan chicken was great. We also got the tofu raisukaree, which had a beautiful f... read more. The fresh and tasty juices on the drinks menu perfectly complement the menus of the establishment, fine particularly are the Maki and specialties like Te-Maki that this restaurant is known for. If you'd like something sweet to finish off, Wagamama does not disappoint with its extensive selection of desserts, and easily digestible Japanese meals are being made with lots of freshly harvested vegetables, fish and meat.
