Location is great right on the Thames. Atmosphere is hip and there were a lot of folks there the night we popped 'round. Not overly expensive, but still, for the price the food is unimpressive and the portions small. As an overseas visitor, I was hoping to have a good English fish 'n chips and a pint along the Thames. What arrived was a pale shadow of what is a national institution. The portion was small (one skinny... read more. The comprehensive variety of coffee and tea specialties makes a visit to Pitcher Piano Richmond even more worthwhile, You can take a break at the bar with a freshly tapped beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks. If you have little appetite, you can treat yourself to one of the delicious sandwiches, a healthy salad or another snack, Particularly with the bite-sized Tapas, you can't absolutely nothing wrong, because there is something for every palate.
