The karaoke was great fun for our Christmas party. The whole thing was such a good laugh. Drinks were reasonable and bar service was good. The meal was cheap, but was quite dated in style and very "microwaved" for the price it was good, but the restaurant side could definitely be improved. Table service was slow and I witnessed the waitress not being polite or helpful to another guest. read more. In nice weather you can even eat in the outdoor area, and there is complimentary WLAN. The rooms on site are accessible, and therefore no problem for customers with wheelchairs or physical limitations. What User doesn't like about Three Hammers: Ordered a toasted BLT ciabatta and got a cold white baguette instead. Servers tells me that that's the only thing they have besides sliced bread. When I asked for a refund, the manager gave it without any eye contact, apology, or the slightest concern for what went wrong. Very poor!! read more. A roundtrip through Great Britain without getting on a plane is absolutely possible when it comes to culinary delights: Three Hammers in St Albans traditionally shines for instance with Fish and Chips, mashed potatoes or roast with Yorkshire Pudding and for dessert a sweet Trifle, Also, the drinks menu at this place is exceptional and offers a significant and comprehensive selection of both local and international beers, which are definitely worth a try. At the bar, you can also relax after the meal (or during it) with an alcoholic or non-alcoholic drink.
