We visited for lunch in between showers on a miserable day whilst camping in the area and ordered a few toasties and a beef baguette.....The service was exceptional and was asked on a few occasions if everything was OK and offered more drinks etc.... The beef baguette was huge and you could tell the salad had been cut to order and very fresh, even the owner had a few yarns to tell and was very welcoming, only downsides... read more.

The restaurant and its rooms are wheelchair accessible and thus reachable with a wheelchair or physical disabilities, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and eat and drink. WLAN is available without additional charges. What Julie C doesn't like about Baily's Corner:

Conor, An extremely rude bar staff who seems to think he's entitled to have bad manors... When asked what his name was so I could tell the owner he replied there's no point as I'm the manager and it's only me who will read it... clearly a hand me down family position as no one would have employed someone with such a bad attitude so disrespectful. No people skills whatsoever, he will be the cause of a family run busin... read more.
