This was our first visit back to Tudor House since March and although we knew Paul (and Ivor) had changed the interior during lockdown we had no idea how it would look. Everything that has been done has been successful, love the new tables!! We...had an old favourite of ours, fish and chips, with lovely coffee, as per usual! It was so nice to see Tudor House up and running again with its new, fresh look! read more. The restaurant also offers the possibility to sit outside and have something in beautiful weather, And into the accessible rooms also come visitors with wheelchairs or physiological limitations. What Jade Walsh doesn't like about Tudor House: Having been in the area on business I called in to treat my son to lunch and try the positive things I had heard.

We sat down and was served by a lovely lady who was brilliant. The male chef/owner then came in and spoke...to us but was extremely crude towards my year old son making sexual comments towards him We would not return read more. Tudor House from Denbighshire is a cozy coffee house, where you can enjoy a snack or cake with a warm coffee or a hot chocolate, The customers of the restaurant are also thrilled with the extensive variety of differing coffee and tea specialities that the establishment offers. You can just get one of the tasty sandwiches, a healthy salad or another snack, if you're not that hungry, Those who are passionate about the British cuisine will enjoy the large diversity of traditional meals and indulge in the taste of England.
