What Ray Chapman likes about Chell's Of Lytham: We had been out all day and ice cream was definitely on my plans, so was glad to see Chell's! The ice cream selection wasn't bad and there were so many flavours I wanted to try! We settled with salted caramel, toffee, raspberry sorbet and...double choc and enjoyed them all. The raspberry sorbet was especially memorable Was tempted to go back for more, but decided against it. There is always next time! read more. The restaurant also offers the possibility to sit outside and eat and drink in pleasant weather, And into the accessible spaces also come clientele with wheelchairs or physiological limitations. WLAN is available at no extra cost. What Louis Hunter doesn't like about Chell's Of Lytham:

... to a special waitress! I called for coffee and cake an afternoon and sat outside with our dog. A waitress came to take our order, and when I asked what cakes they gave a very theatrical sigh and said she had no idea...and I should go and look for me! Maybe everything was true above, but the message could have been improved without the sigh, the Shrug and the instruction to look for me was delivered more pleasantly. A great café that is left off by a specific employee. The extensive range of coffee and tea specialties greatly enhances the value of a visit to Chell's Of Lytham, Particularly fans of the British cuisine are excited about the extensive selection of traditional meals and love the typical English cuisine. We offer not only sweet pieces, cakes and simple snacks, but also cold and hot drinks, Forbreakfast a hearty brunch is offered here.
