Visited twice over the weekend Saturday lunch and Sunday eve, really busy both times service was good, lunch time wait for food acceptable. It's a Spoons, good value and you know what you are getting read more. When the weather conditions is pleasant you can also have something outside, and there is no-charge WiFi. The rooms on site are accessible, and therefore no problem for guests with wheelchairs or physiological disabilities. What visited in the late afternoon and ordered 2 currys and a burger meal. the food was nice and classic pub grub. nothing special but what i would expect from a spoons however the curries come with papadums which we had to return 3 times because they were under cooked. they were returned with limited apology each time. i know its only spoons but at least learn how to fry the papadums properly read more. With the large selection of coffee and tea specialties, a visit to The Crown becomes even more attractive. Also, the drinks menu at this place is exceptional and offers a significant and varied selection of both local and international beers, which are definitely worth a try. If you want to have breakfast, a hearty brunch awaits you, You can also unwind at the bar with a freshly tapped beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks.
