What Carlota León likes about The Cinnamon Stick: A lovely atmosphere with fabulous food, wine and service. The mezze were delicious, the lamb shank was simply amazing (thank you for the recommendation Khalid) and as for the baklava, wow. We will definitely be back. read more. The premises on site are wheelchair accessible and can also be used with a wheelchair or physical disabilities, and there is no-charge WiFi. If the weather are right, you can also eat and drink outside. What Rebecca T doesn't like about The Cinnamon Stick:

I'm not quite sure how this place has got the positive reviews it has. Aside from the polite young waiter all we experienced was overpriced, poorly cooked presented Middle Eastern food. My chicken shawarma looked like it had never seen a griddle or flame....it was pale, grisly wet. The environment is grubby, make shift not very welcoming at all. There are a few good Middle Eastern restaurants within a 10 mile radius of... read more. The comprehensive range of coffee and tea specialties makes a visit to The Cinnamon Stick even more worthwhile, there are also delectable vegetarian recipes on the menu. There are also easily digestible Mediterranean menus on the menu, The customers also rave about the scrumptious, airy flatbread that can be dipped into the own hummus or a yoghurt dip; the unusual combination of figs with goat cheese is also one of the specialties from the diverse cuisine of the Middle East.
