Such a lovely experience. Arriving early evening and seeing the restaurant gradually fill, hearing the buzz in the room. Seeing the kitchen and chefs' taking so much precise care over every dish served, experiencing the great service...and enjoying the amazing food, so well presented. Certainly will return. Again and again. read more.

When the weather conditions is nice you can also eat and drink outside. What User doesn't like about The Sardine Factory:

Great front of house staff and nice decor in restaurant but sadly the food didn't live up to that. The fish chowder looked attractive but was cold and bland and tasted as though it was out of a can, the salad looked attractive but it was huge whole leaves that were impossible to cut and eat in the small dish, the green kale was cold. The fish in the tacos was better but was served in rubbery soft tacos. We abandoned... read more.
